PROFILE

I am Dr. Adeleh Dadkhah, a Radiology Specialist and faculty member at Iran University of Medical Sciences. My academic career was highlighted by achieving a ranking within the top 5% in the 1400 (2021) Radiology Board Examination. My commitment to advancing radiology is demonstrated through my extensive publication record, with numerous articles featured in both international and domestic scientific journals. I actively contribute to the academic community as a frequent speaker at national congresses, including the Iranian Congress of Radiology, and through participation in specialized conferences on advanced imaging techniques. These activities reflect my dedication to fostering knowledge and innovation in the field of medical imaging specially in genitourinary field..
